NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.
The Partnership existing under the firm and style of H. & J. MAYER expires on the 22nd day of March next, by mutual consent.
JOSEPH MAYER.
Wilmington, Nov. 23rd, 1854.

THE undersigned, retiring from their present business, beg leave to inform their friends that they offer for sale their entire stock of FANCY AND DOMESTIC DRY GOODS and Clothing, Hats, Caps, &c., at the greatest bargains ever offered to the people, at this place or elsewhere. They are determined to close their business before March next, and assure all those who are in want of any article in their line, that they will have a good opportunity to make an eligible purchase.
Our assortment is large, well, and with the greatest care selected at the North and Europe by one of the firm, Henry Mayer & Co. We have on hand a large stock of Silk, Cloths, Casimere, &c. &c. Also, Goods, such as Shawl Linen, (Cranes) and Irish Russia Sheetings; Pillow Case Linen; Damask Table Cloth; Diaper and Handkerchiefs, all imported by ourselves, which will be sold 25 per cent less than their value.
To Store Keepers and Planters we will say that they can buy goods at much less price than they can at the Northern cities. All we have to request is, to convince yourselves of the above, as the stock must be sold.
H. & J. MAYER.
P. S. JACOB MAYER, one of the silent partners, has just returned from Europe, and is prepared to sell his share for a short time, and he will be pleased to see all his former friends and customers and he will feel much pleasure in attending to all business in the Commission line.
